Service Medals.

2) The Birthday of His Highness falls on 16th July 1949. Action has to be taken to replenish the stock of Gandabherunda jewels and Public Service and Scout Service Medals that may be required for presentation during the Birthday Durbar.

Following is the present stock position of the Jewels and Medals:

I. Jewels	Stock on hand.
Special Class	nil
A1	nil
A2	one
B1	three
B2	two
C1	three
C2	two
D	one

The three C1 Class Jewels include the one awarded to Sri B.N. Gopala Rao (who since has been declared an insolvent) and purchased from the Official Receiver.

II. Public Service Medals:

1st Class	five
2nd Class	fourteen

III. Scout Service Medals: three

IV. War Service Medals:

1st Class	one
2nd Class	six
3rd Class	ten
4th Class	twelve

V. Police Service Medals: one

7) Last year, one A1, five C1, six C2, seven 1st Class Public Service medals and two 13 2nd Class Public Service Medals and two Scout Service Medals were awarded.

Action has to be taken to place orders for the manufacture of Jewels, Public Service Medals and Scout Service Medals to bring up the stock to the level directed to be maintained in Govt. Order No. 3575-6/ G.P. 7-32-19 dated 27th May 1933. That is, the following quantities under each class have to be got manufactured:

Jewel	No. required.
Special Class	(Vide note below)

A2	one -do-
C1	~~two~~ one -do-
C2	two -do-
D	three -do-
Public Service
Medals - 1st Class	seven -do-

Note 1: Special Class Jewels are manufactured only when they are required. The number of jewels of this class to be got made is for consideration and orders.

Note 2: Prior to 1940, there were only four classes of titles, viz., A, B, C and D. The Jewels attached to these titles were also classified as A, B, C, and D. The Govt. Order of 1935 specifies the minimum stock of these jewels to be maintained. They are A - 1; B - 3; C - 4; D - 4.

With the introduction of the new classes of titles in 1941, and thereby new classes of Jewels, viz., Special, A1, A2, C1, C2, and D, the stock to be maintained of each class has to be determined afresh. This is under examination separately. Pending final orders as regards this, the minimum stock previously prescribed for the four main classes, then in existence, is taken to apply to the new classes of Jewels as indicated against each below:

A1	-	1✓
A2	-	1x
B1	-	3✓
B2	-	3-1
C1	-	4-1
C2	-	4-2
D	-	4-3

Letter of 22-6-49 from Messrs Lakshmi Jewellery Co. furnishing quotations

Accordingly quotations have been called for from Messrs Lakshmi Jewellery Co., with whom orders have already been placed for the ^{seven} supplying P.S. Medals

1st class at Rs 192-0-0 each.

The quotations are as follows.

Public Service Medals 1 st class	Rs 195-8-0

P.S. Medals 2 nd class	Rs 120-0-0
-----------------------------------	------------

Medals

It has also been ascertained that these medals would be delivered ^{right} within seven seven days from the date of order. It is for orders whether the orders may be placed with the firm.

CKS 42 The quotation for I class Medals 22/6 would be Rs. 3 $\frac{3}{8}$ more than the ~~approved~~ ~~quoted~~ rate approved and accepted for the same class of medals ordered on 3rd May 1949 from the same firm. The reason for the slight increase is stated to be due to a rise in the price of gold since. It is for orders whether the quotation of Rs. 195-8-0 may be accepted and orders placed for an additional twelve medals. The firm says that it will be in a position to supply the medals within one week from the date of order. This condition will be stipulated in placing orders.

43) As regards II class medals, none has been ordered this year in view of the fact that 14 are available in stock.

44) ~~S~~ Messrs. Lakshmi Jewellery Co., say that they can supply these at -
Rs. 120/- each. This is the same as the rate approved and accepted for Second class medals last year. It is for order whether this quotation may be accepted and orders placed for 12 medals - to be supplied within

one week.

Ind
22.6.49. 45) - The firm has agreed to supply the
2nd. 6. 49. second ^{set} of 12 P. S. medals within seven days from the date of orders.

46) - The quotation for I class P. S. Medals has been raised by Rs 3-8-0, in view of the raise in the cost of Gold. The amount quoted viz Rs 195-8-0 for 1st P. S. Medal
may perhaps be accepted.

47) - The amount quoted for the

P.S. Mervels

Second class P.S. viz Rs 120/- each, is same as that quoted last year? This may also be accepted.

Supply & jewels to Govt - liability to sales tax

(10) The point for consideration is whether sales tax is liable to be paid on 'Jewels' supplied to Government for purposes of presentation at the Durbar by H.H. the Maharaja.

(11) It is seen from the correspondence that there is no mention of the tax in question and no stipulation for payment. However payment of tax is a statutory duty and cannot be evaded unless specially exempted. The liability to pay the tax arises apart from the terms of the contract. The presumption at para 102 supra that the price quoted by the merchants must be considered as inclusive of sales tax does not appear to be correct; The tax is levied usually after the quotation of the price and completion of the transaction unless the party specifically quotes the price as inclusive of the tax. In the circumstances the prices quoted cannot be construed to be inclusive of sales tax.

(113) But goods sold to the Mysore Palace and which are chargeable to sales tax have been exempted from the levy of sales tax (Vide. No. d. 10-11-48, Pg 'L').

In the present case the jewels have been supplied to Government for purposes of presentation at the Durbar by H.H. the Maharaja. If the transactions are on behalf of the Palace then they are not liable to sales tax (Vide. No fg 'L'). If however they are supplied to the Government, they are liable to sales tax. This is a matter however for decision on the administrative side.

Respected Sir,

With reference to your kind letter No.8187-91/C.B. dated 6th. inst. we beg to enclose our quotation for the Gandaberunda Jewels in a sealed cover. Owing to the unsettled conditions of the market and the violent fluctuations in prices, it is very difficult to quote for articles made of precious metals and precious stones. Further, the quotation may vary according to the quality of the gems used. We have never sacrificed our quality for the sake of competition, and the Government are fully aware of the excellent workmanship and the quality of the jewels supplied by us in the past. We beg to assure you that our policy would continue to be one of efficient service, and that it would be our endeavour to supply jewels of the best quality. Enc. 1 sealed cover.
